SPANISH FOOTBALL CAMP

EBRE TALENT

Who are we?

EBRE TALENT FOOTBALL is a leading organization in the training of future football talents in India. We specialize in the comprehensive development of young football players by offering high-quality training in Spain, our city Amposta, providing them with the opportunity to access a competitive international level.

Our program focuses not only on improving technical and tactical skills but also on the physical, mental, and emotional development of each player. Through experienced coaches and a personalized approach, we prepare our students for the challenges of professional football.

WHAT IS EBRE TALENT FOOTBALL?

Our Achievements

Throughout our journey, we have had the honor of training and supporting several players who, after completing our football development program in Spain, have achieved success in the football industry. Many of them are now professional players in the Indian Super League (ISL), the top football competition in India. Additionally, some of our alumni have been called up to the Indian National Football Team, representing the country on the international stage.

The success of our players is a testament to the effort, dedication, and quality of the program we offer, and we take great pride in seeing them contribute to the growth and professionalization of football in India.

OUR TEAM

MIQUEL VIDAL

Sports Director

The Sports Director of EBRE TALENT FOOTBALL, is a highly experienced professional with deep ties to the international football world. Holding a UEFA Pro License, his primary role is to ensure the quality and level of our football training programs, ensuring that each player receives the necessary preparation to stand out in the professional arena.

Miquel Vidal is the overall responsible for the technical and strategic direction of our training programs.

Miquel Vidal was the Sports Director of Arsenal Soccer School in India, where he supervised and coordinated the training of young Indian football talents. In this position, he was responsible for creating and executing training programs for footballers in India, significantly contributing to the improvement of football standards in the country.

Furthermore, Miquel Vidal is the key person responsible for the training of Indian players in Spain, which allowed many of them to make the leap to professional leagues in India, including teams in the Indian Super League and the Indian National Football Team.

His holistic approach to player development, which includes technical, tactical, physical, and psychological aspects, has been crucial to the success of our players.

Key Responsibilities Overseeing and coordinating the planning and execution of all training sessions, ensuring the highest standards are maintained.

- Establishing the technical and tactical guidelines for the player development program, working closely with coaches to ensure that training methods are innovative and effective.
- Managing talent scouting, collaborating with scouts and other experts to identify and develop future football stars.
- Ensuring that players receive comprehensive training, preparing them not only for professional competition but also for personal development on and off the field Sports Philosophy.

Miquel Vidal is a strong advocate for developing well-rounded footballers, who are not only excellent technically but also develop leadership skills, teamwork, discipline, and resilience. Under his direction, our players not only reach their full potential in football but are also prepared for a successful career both on and off the field.

Our vision is to continue being a reference in football training, not only in India but globally, and to keep helping our students fulfill their dreams and reach the highest levels of professional football.
